To

The District Magistrate

of Dharwar.

Dated Hyderabad Residency, 13th August 1912.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No.5586, dated the 22nd July 1912, and previous correspondence, I am directed to inform you that, from a communication just received from His Highness the Nizam's Minister, it appears that instructions have been issued to the District Magistrate of Raichur to surrender the accused Hanma, son of Sanjivappa, to the British frontier authorities, for transmission to the Sub-Inspector of Police at Savanur.

2. I am to request, therefore, that you will be so good as to arrange to take charge of the accused when surrendered, and that you will be so good as to intimate to me, in due course, the result of the trial of the accused, and the date of the disposal of the case, for communication to His Highnes Minister.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant;

For First Assistant Resident.

Poona,
Dnyan Prakash Press,
25th Sept 1912.

Dear Sir,

A volume of the collected Writings and Speeches of the late Hon. Rao Bahadur G. V. Joshi has just been issued by the Arya Bhushan Press. The volume presents in a compact form a study of many of the important public questions during the last thirty years. It is throughout studded with statistics which was the author's strong point. Besides, it lays down a high standard and stand-point from which to study public questions. Hon. Mr. Joshi was a disciple as well as a co-worker of the late Mr. Justice Ranade; and the volume of his works, now issued, is probably the only one of its kind in India, covering such a vide range of subjects treated with such minuteness of detail. The book covers about 1260 Demi. Oct. pages, with a full Index of 24 pages, and is priced at Rs. 5 per copy. We have, therefore, to request that you will kindly register an order for one or more copies of this book, and otherwise render such assistance as you could to advance its sale. We are anxious that the work should find ready sale among the wide circle of admirers of Hon. Mr. Joshi's patriotic services as a publicist, especially as a large sum has been invested in the publication of the book, which is intended to abide as a sort of a useful memorial to the man and his work.

We remain,
Yours truly,
N. C. Kelkar, (Kesari Office).
A. V. Patwardhan,
(Dnyan-Prakash Office).
